When I think back on all that you have done for me over the past 10 months while I was hospitalized or in a nursing home, I remember fondly the gifts, the visits, and the prayers. I especially want to thank my pastors Brian, Bob and Ben and the care team. Also, a big thank you goes to my family. As I am back home at Landsmeer, please continue praying for healing for my dislocated hip so I won't need further surgery. Thanks again, I couldn't have done it without all of you!" ~ Bev Heemstra*

SUNDAYS AT TRINITY

8:15 a.m. Worship

9:30 a.m. Worship

10:50 a.m. Worship

In his book Emotionally Healthy Spirituality, Peter Scazzero writes these provocative words: "Emotional health and spiritual maturity are inseparable. It is not possible to be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature." Most often, the places where we get stuck in our spiritual journey and the health of our relationships is beneath the surface, where we lack awareness. We don't know what we don't know. But what if God wants to heal and transform you from deep within? What if you could really live more fully into God's design for your life and your relationships?

Today Pastor Brian Keepers will challenge us to look at the busy and frenetic pace of our lives, and to choose instead to live into the unforced rhythms of God's grace. In the words of the prophet Isaiah, "In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be your strength." (30:16-18).
