WELCOME

TRINITYCHURCH
Connecting with God, others, and the world

At Trinity, we're working hard to help people connect with God, with each other, and with God's work in the world. We hope you experience that connection today.

WELCOME, FIRST-TIME GUESTS!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We are so glad you are here today. We prayed this week that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. If you're here for the first time, please stop at the Welcome Center. We'd love the opportunity to meet you. Thanks for coming today!

TODAY AT TRINITY

8:15 a.m. Worship

9:30 a.m. Worship

10:50 a.m. Worship

When Jesus walked on earth he gave us a glimpse of what the kingdom of God is like. And in almost every way, it is completely upside down from the way things work in the kingdoms of this world. In God's kingdom, the meek inherit the earth, enemies are to be loved, and the true King wears a crown of thorns. What we discover is more than just a new set of doctrines or a special prayer to pray or rules to follow; we experience a new way of life! As Trinity dives into the New Testament book of Matthew, focusing on Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount," we invite you into this upside down kingdom where we are transformed to live and love more like Jesus every day.

When the Bible says, "You shall not murder," what if this means more than the literal act of killing someone? Today Pastor Brian Keepers will guide us in exploring Jesus' teaching that anger in the heart is just as bad as murder. Carrying anger not only harms others, it becomes a prison for the person angry. What if you could be free of that anger? What if there was a way to be healed of your deep hurts? What if broken relationships could be mended? This is the hope we have in God's upside down kingdom.

Here is your kingdom practice for the week. Remember that transformation happens when we go beyond just information and actually practice and reflect on what we're learning. Discipleship is about getting into action!

Kingdom Practice

"If you enter your place of worship and, about to make an offering, you suddenly remember a grudge a friend has against you, abandon your offering, leave immediately, go to this friend and make things right." - Matthew 5:23-24

With God's help, take one step towards forgiving someone who has hurt you. Or ask for forgiveness from someone whom you've hurt. If possible, take the initiative to be reconciled to that person or repair the relationship. (Note: reconciliation is not always possible, nor may it be advisable in cases where abuse is involved. You may want to talk to a pastor or counselor first).
