TODAY AT TRINITY

8:15am Worship
9:30am Worship
10:50am Worship

The good news of Easter is that Jesus, the Risen King, is on the move! He's on the move out of the tomb and into the world—the everyday places where we live, work and play. And he commissions us, as his disciples, to be on the move with him! Today we continue our 5-week sermon series on Jesus's "Great Commission" (Matthew 28:16-20).

This morning Pastor Brian Keepers will explore what it means to make disciples "as we go" by "baptizing... in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19). Our teaching today will focus on the theology and practice of baptism—what it means and why it matters.

100 YEARS OF TRINITY

Did you know that Trinity has had 10 lead pastors and 2 associate pastors in the past 100 years?

Pastor Brian Keepers has been at Trinity for less than 2 years and already his passion for preaching the Word, his leadership skills and his kind and caring personality have connected with the congregation and community. Our previous pastor, Jon Opgenorth, served at Trinity for 17 years before taking a position with Words of Hope.

However, our longest serving pastor, Rev. Donald Lenderink, led and served at Trinity for 24 years before accepting a call to another church. Years later, he and his wife, Ruth, returned to Orange City and Trinity for their retirement years. Rev. Lenderink has graciously assisted with many memorial services of long time Trinity members and together he and Ruth have enjoyed calling on many of Trinity's seniors.

God has blessed Trinity through the leadership of each of these individuals. Each has been led by the Lord and has contributed to the nourishment and growth of the church. (See pictures of Trinity's previous pastors on the fellowship hall tv. There is also a table with stories and photos of past pastors and staff.)

In addition to these pastors, there are many staff members who have dedicated several years of service to Trinity and its mission. Some of the longest serving staff include: Lawrence Van Wyk and Roland Simmelink as choir directors; Andy Keller as worship leader; Bev Heemstra, Lila Simmelink, and Laurie Kurtz as office personnel; John Feikema as bookkeeper; Rick Clark as youth leader; Karen Clark as children's education coordinator; and Lee and Elaine Hofland and Doug Carlson as custodians.

TRINITY STORY WALL

100 years. That's a long time. One hundred years of stories, experiences, individuals, and God's faithfulness in the life and ministry of Trinity. Whether you've been here from the start or you're relatively new, you have your own stories and memories of how God has been at work through Trinity. Let's share those stories with each other! It might be someone who was influential to you. It could be a memory of something as simple as green carpet. It might be an experience you had or a way in which your faith was formed. We invite you to visit the story wall (outside the sanctuary), take a slip of paper, write your memories, and pin them on the wall for others to see. We all have a story to share. What's yours?
