Connecting with God, others, and the world

At Trinity, we're working hard to help people connect with God, with each other, and with God's work in the world. We hope you experience that connection today.

WELCOME, FIRST-TIME GUESTS!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We are so glad you're here today. We prayed this week that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. If you're here for the first time, please stop at the Welcome Center. We'd love the opportunity to meet you and we have a gift to say thanks for being our guest. Thanks for coming today!

TODAY AT TRINITY

9:00am Worship
10:30am Worship

Each day we live out our lives. Our stories. Just as those who came before us. Our role models. Our examples. Our heroes of the faith. And the stories of these heroes of faith we read about in the Bible are connected to our stories now. They are all tied together and caught up in God's big story. God is the real hero in this big story, but we each have a part to play. So let us fix our eyes on Jesus as we run the race set before us, remembering that our stories are part of a much bigger story. God's story is the story in which we all find ourselves.

Today we celebrate Trinity Church's 100th Anniversary!

As we look back over the years at all that has been accomplished in and through the life and ministry of our congregation, it raises this important question: "Who gets the credit?" On this special day, we'll seek to answer that question by exploring the story of a man named Gideon (Judges chapters 6-9) and the way God called him to lead the Israelites in a battle where all odds were against them.

100 YEARS OF TRINITY

Today we celebrate 100 years of life and ministry at Trinity.

Over the last ten weeks we have looked back together and shared several stories and memories from Trinity's history. Today we celebrate together God's faithfulness over the last 100 years and look with anticipation to what God has in store for Trinity in the years to come.

As we look back on this history and praise God for his faithfulness, we can't help but recognize everyone who has played a role in this history. The church is more than just a building or a name, it's the people. And it's the people of Trinity that make ministry at our church happen.

Whatever your role at Trinity, thank you for being a part of what God is doing in the life of our church. Thank you for being here and being present. We value the presence and participation of each and every one of you.

As we look to the future, it's our prayer that Trinity would continue to live into the DNA that has been evident in this congregation from the start. May we continue to be a church that is centered in the gospel, that values biblical and vibrant worship, that is open to change, that values transformational Christ-centered community, that is intentional about hospitality, and that is deeply committed to God's mission—locally, regionally, and globally.

TRINITY STORY WALL

100 years. That's a long time. One hundred years of stories, experiences, individuals, and God's faithfulness in the life and ministry of Trinity. Whether you've been here from the start or you're relatively new, you have your own stories and memories of how God has been at work through Trinity. Let's share those stories with each other! It might be someone who was influential to you. It could be a memory of something as simple as green carpet. It might be an experience you had or a way in which your faith was formed. We invite you to visit the story wall (outside the sanctuary), take a slip of paper, write your memories, and pin them on the wall for others to see. We all have a story to share. What's yours?
