Life Groups:

Life Groups are becoming an increasingly important way to more fully live into your faith, particularly with the size of Trinity. Group sizes vary and mainly meet in members homes and have various meeting times. We want people to find a place to grow spiritually and connect with others. Looking to step towards a deeper connection with Christ and others? We have room for you! If you're hoping to get connected with a Life Group, sign up for more information at connectwithtrinity.com/sign-up.

Watch Trinity Online:

We invite you to watch a live stream of our Sunday morning worship services at connectwithtrinity.com/live or on our Facebook page.

ENFOLDING UPDATES

Starting January 1, Trinity and First Hoppers will become one church in two locations. As we draw closer to this start date, we are continuing to build a Core Team to be a part of the relaunch of the Trinity Hoppers campus. We will worship together as one church in Orange City on January 5, 12, and 19. The Hoppers campus will be relaunched on January 26.

There will be an opportunity TODAY after the 10:50 service for you to come and hear from Campus Pastor Kurt Bush as well as the Transition Team on how you can be involved. We will meet together in the youth room and provide a light lunch for everyone in attendance. Kids are welcome to attend with their parents.

WELCOME

TRINITYCHURCH
Connecting with God, others, and the world

At Trinity, we're working hard to help people connect with God, with each other, and with God's work in the world. We hope you experience that connection today.

WELCOME, FIRST-TIME GUESTS!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We are so glad you're here today. We prayed this week that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. If you're here for the first time, please stop at the Welcome Center. We'd love the opportunity to meet you and we have a gift to say thanks for being our guest. Thanks for coming today!

TODAY'S WORSHIP

9:30 // 10:50 AM

The "holiday season" brings with it a mixture of emotions. We feel excitement and joy as we set up Christmas trees and string up lights and listen to our favorite Christmas songs and enjoy other traditions. But it can also be a time of stress and frenetic activity. For some of us, it brings sadness and feelings of loneliness. With all these different emotions and activities, the deepest, truest meaning of Christmas can get lost. What makes this month of December so special? What makes the season of Advent, which is about expectation and waiting, so important? The heart of the Christmas gospel and the true meaning of Christmas is that in this child born in Bethlehem, God has come to be with us. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory." (John 1:14)

On this third Sunday in Advent, we'll consider how Jesus, God with us, came into the world but the world did not recognize him. Jesus does not meet all the expectations of who we think God should be and how God should act. But as John the Evangelist tells us, "To all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God." The good news of Christmas is that we can finally become who God created us to be in the gift of this Mighty Savior!
