NEW: TRIADS & SPIRITUAL PRACTICES

We are launching our fall sermon series in the book of Ephesians on September 13. With this series, we invite you to explore and engage spiritual practices in community. Every week we will recommend a spiritual practice. We encourage you to engage the spiritual practice and gather together weekly with two other people in a triad. We envision this triad will be a place to authentically share and encourage one another as you practice the presence of God and one another. To participate, sign up online. At registration you can let us know the way in which you will be participating – individually, forming a triad of your choosing, or being placed in a triad. Weekly emails will explain spiritual practices, ideas on how to engage the practices, and question prompts for your triad. Sign up by September 8 if you'd like to be placed in a triad.

Connecting with God, others, and the world

August 30, 2020

WELCOME!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We're so glad you are joining us today, whether this is your first time worshipping with us or you have been with us for years. We pray that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. Whether you're joining us online or on campus, thank you for being here!

The Song of the Sea

Today we look at the story of Moses in Exodus 15. A song that Moses and the people sang. God saved the people from Egypt and God's people sing. As God's people stood on the shore of the Red Sea with the uncertainty of the wilderness in front of them, they learned how to trust God. In our own seasons of uncertainty, we can sing and praise God too.

While there are some slight differences between our campuses, what unites us is our shared mission to connect people with God, others, and the world. We invite you to try whatever campus or worship service experience works best for you and your family.
