NEW: TRIADS & SPIRITUAL PRACTICES

We are launching our fall sermon series on September 13. Throughout this series we encourage you to engage the recommended spiritual practices and gather together weekly with two other people in a triad. We envision this triad will be a place to authentically share and encourage one another as you practice the presence of God and one another. To participate, sign up at connectwithtrinity.com/signups. At registration you can let us know the way in which you will be participating – individually, forming a triad of your choosing, or being placed in a triad. Weekly emails will explain spiritual practices, ideas on how to engage the practices, and question prompts for your triad. Sign up by Sept. 8 if you'd like to be placed in a triad.

Connecting with God, others, and the world

September 6, 2020

WELCOME!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We're so glad you are joining us today, whether this is your first time worshipping with us or you have been with us for years. We pray that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. Whether you're joining us online or on campus, thank you for being here!

A Psalm of Perseverance

This week, we'll explore together a Psalm of Ascent, in which the Psalmist shares authentic feelings of being beaten down and oppressed by his enemies, as he perseveres in the great truth that the Lord is righteous. I wonder if we too, even in this season of loss and change, feel beaten down sometimes. Through the words of the Psalmist, we too are invited to continue walking authentically in our lives of discipleship, persevering even when extremely difficult, all the while proclaiming that God is righteous with all that we are.

ONE CHURCH, TWO LOCATIONS

The Church is not a building but a community of people. Whether online or in-person, the people of Trinity gather at multiple times and in different locations throughout the week. While there are some slight differences between our campuses, what unites us is our shared mission to connect people with God, others, and the world. We invite you to try whatever campus or worship service experience works best for you and your family.
