RUTH DISCIPLESHIP TOOLS

Amid difficult circumstances that threaten despair, how might God, though seemingly veiled, be at work in extraordinary ways through very ordinary people in ordinary ways? Today, as we begin our new six-week sermon series, Ruth: Ordinary People | Ordinary Acts | Extraordinary God, you are invited to engage the weekly discipleship tools at connectwithtrinity.com/ruth. There you will find a reading plan, scripture questions, sermon discussion questions and an opportunity to give and receive kindness. A printable PDF will also be available if you prefer.

TRINITYCHURCH

Connecting with God, others, and the world

January 10, 2021

WELCOME!

Welcome to Trinity Church! We're so glad you are joining us today, whether this is your first time worshipping with us or you have been with us for years. We pray that all who enter our doors would experience the life-changing, eternity-altering love of God through Jesus. Whether you're joining us online or on campus, thank you for being here!

Ruth: Notice the Ordinary

This morning is the first week of our new sermon series on the Old Testament book of Ruth. In this series, we'll remember that most of the moments of our lives are in fact "ordinary." But that doesn't mean that God isn't present and active. In fact, the opposite is true, that God is always present and often makes his presence most known in the ordinary of our lives.

This morning, Pastor Kurt Bush will explore the first chapter of Ruth with us as we meet Naomi and her family in the ordinary of their lives to see how God begins to show up in them. We look forward to beginning our look at the story of Ruth this morning!

Please join us in praying for teachers and students, kindergarten through college students, as they transition back into the classrooms this week.

A number of our members and neighbors are dealing with COVID with varying degrees of difficulty. Please pray for all of those who are dealing with the physical effects of illness and the mental effects of quarantine.

Please pray for our brothers and sisters who are confined to their homes, and those who may feel lonely today.
