LOCAL NEEDS TEAM

Trinity's Local Needs Team assists people at Trinity and in the community with immediate, emergency, and/or unexpected needs.

Part of what it means to be the body of Christ is that we recognize we all have needs. Admitting that you need help is not a sign of weakness. It points to our interdependence as brothers and sisters in Christ. Beyond impact of the coronavirus on physical, mental and emotional health, this crisis has had economic impact on our nation and community. So we want to "be inventive in helping each other out", as Paul puts it in Romans 12. This is an opportunity for us to both give help and receive help.

Financial Support

If you are facing financial challenges, please fill out a local needs request form at connectwithtrinity.com/needs so that our Local Needs Team can come alongside you.

Grocery Delivery

If you are in need of someone to pick up groceries for you, please contact Ashley Stanislav at ashley.stanislav@gmail.com or 712-395-8739.

Mobile Food Pantry

Trinity's mobile food pantry meets people where they're at to offer support on a monthly basis. We are looking for donations of black beans (1 lb. bag), pinto beans (1 lb. bag), rice, maseca, canned fruit (with pull tabs), sugar (small bag), peanut butter, jelly, cereal, pasta noodles, pasta sauce, and vegetable oil. Donations can be left on the table outside of the K-5 children's area.

For more information about this ministry, reach out to Ashley Stanislav (ashley.stanislav@gmail.com) or Josh Van Es (jgvanes@yahoo.com).

Cultivate: The Fruit of Self-Control

Today as we conclude our sermon series exploring the various fruit of the Spirit—that is, Christlike virtues—found in Galatians 5:22-23, Pastor Brian Keepers will invite us to consider the spiritual fruit of "self-control." We live in a culture where freedom is seen as the ability to do whatever we want (self-indulgence), but this only further enslaves us. Instead, the Apostle Paul calls us to cultivate self-control, which is all about surrendering more completely to the Holy Spirit's presence and power in our lives. This is true freedom: to live and be guided by the Spirit!

This 4-week study will prompt you to reflect on your own political theology and challenge you to rethink what it means to live out discipleship in the political sphere. Starting June 17, we'll meet via Zoom on Thursdays from 8-9:15pm. Sign up at connectwithtrinity.com/signups.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Cultivate: The Fruit of Self-Control Galatians 5:13-26

A Liturgy for First Waking (Every Moment Holy, Douglas Kaine Mckelvey)

I am not the captain of my own destiny, not even of this new day, and so I renounce anew all claim to my own life and desires. I am only yours, O Lord.

Lead me by your mercies through these hours, that I might spend them well, not in harried pursuit of my own agendas, but rather in good service to you.

Teach me to shepherd the small duties of this day with great love, tending faithfully those tasks you place within my care and tending with patience and kindness the needs and hearts of those people you place within my reach.

Nothing is too hard for you, Lord Christ. I deposit now all confidence in you that whatever these waking hours bring, my foundations will not be shaken.

At day's end I will lay me down again to sleep knowing that my best hope is well kept in you.

In all things your grace will sustain me. Bid me follow, And I will follow.
