Connecting with God, others, and the world

September 26, 2021

WELCOME!

The Old Testament book of Nehemiah is a story about God's faithfulness to bring His people, Israel, home after a long period of exile. God calls two key leaders, Nehemiah and the priest Ezra, to rebuild the holy temple and the wall of Jerusalem, which lay in ruins. Even more importantly, these two leaders are called to join God in rebuilding a holy people—a covenant community that remembers who and whose they are, as well as their calling to be a light to the nations. So, as the body of Christ, we are called to rise up and join God's work of building for His kingdom. Ultimately, God is building us into a kingdom people for His glory and for the sake of the world.

Rise and Rebuild: Together, Everyone Doing Their Part

At first glance, Nehemiah 3 looks like a chapter in the Bible that no one wants to read aloud because of all the hard-to-pronounce names! But there is much that shimmers in this gem of a passage. We'll see the importance of rebuilding the wall as the Israelites return to Jerusalem, discover its connection within the bigger picture of God's kingdom, and apply it in our own lives today.
