

Sunday, September 10

1. Today, on both campuses, we kicked off our fall sermon series on our core values, and who we believe God is calling Trinity Church to be. What does it mean to you to be “Centered in the Gospel?”
2. Where do you see the value of being “centered in the Gospel” in this week’s sermon text (Col. 1:15-23)?
3. Where do you see the value of being “centered in the Gospel” show up in and around Trinity Church?
4. In Colossians 1:20, Paul writes that through Jesus Christ, God was “pleased to reconcile to himself all things.” That includes you! What does it stir in you to think that God was pleased to reconcile you to himself?
5. What’s one way that the Holy Spirit might be inviting you to live out the value of being “centered in Gospel” right where you are today?

Sunday, September 17

1. Continuing on in our sermon series on Trinity’s core values, what stirs in you when you think of “Biblical, dynamic worship?”
2. Where do you see “biblical, dynamic worship” in this week’s sermon text (Psalm 63)?
3. How do you see the value of “Biblical, dynamic worship” show up in and around Trinity Church?
4. Worship, though so much more, is often reduced to what we do on Sunday morning in the sanctuary together, and sometimes even to simply our time singing songs together. How might we begin to understand worship more broadly as a whole life posture?
5. What’s one way that the Holy Spirit might be inviting you to live out the value of “Biblical, dynamic worship” right where you are today?

Sunday, September 24

1. This week’s core value is “radical hospitality.” Can you think of a time someone showed you “radical hospitality?”
2. Where do you see “radical hospitality in this week’s sermon text (Luke 14:7-14)?
3. How do you see the value of “radical hospitality” show up in and around Trinity Church?
4. What are some things (or barriers) that keep you from showing “radical hospitality” to others?
5. What’s one way that the Holy Spirit might be inviting you to live out the value of “radical hospitality” right where you are today?