

NEXT STEPS

APPLICATION PROCESS

If you believe God might be calling you to contribute to the next chapter of Trinity's story, please submit all of the following:

- Cover letter briefly introducing yourself to the search team.
- Resume highlighting your professional training and experience.
- Your response to each of Trinity's values and what excites you about our mission and values.
- A description of how you have been prepared to fulfill the Lead Pastor responsibilities as outlined in the job description.
- A brief description of one or two experiences that make you a particularly good fit for Trinity.
- Links to three videos of sermons or other events that demonstrate your teaching ability.
- Two professional references and two personal references (names, phone numbers, and email addresses). In the interest of confidentiality, we will communicate with candidates before we contact their references.

All materials should be emailed to Joel Carlson, search chair, at trcpastorsearch@gmail.com. Please note that the search team will only consider a candidate's submission when all the requested materials have been received.

This position will remain posted throughout the search process until a qualified candidate has been selected.

